Confidentiality Measures

UC DATA has made every effort to preserve the privacy of cases and persons whose characteristics data are within this database.

- We have removed all individual identifying information which was on the original county administrative data files. NO NAMES, ADDRESSES, ZIPCODES, SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS, OR ADMINISTRATIVE CASE NUMBERS ARE IN THESE PUBLIC USE DATA FILES.
- The only geographic identification is the county (i.e. AL, LA, SB, and SJ) where the case is located.
- County case serial numbers have been replaced with a randomly assigned identification number which is unique across all four counties. The mapping between identification numbers and county case serial numbers is maintained under strict security by UC DATA.

We believe THESE MEASURES MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO TRACE ANY PERSON ON WELFARE FROM THESE DATASETS. All UC DATA employees associated with this project have signed a confidentiality agreement with the State of California (Department of Social Services) swearing to protect the privacy of welfare clients selected for the Work Pays Demonstration Project.

Confidentiality Agreement

This dataset contains sensitive information. Your use of this dataset implies the acceptance of the following conditions. If you do not agree with the following conditions, please do not use this dataset, and return it and the accompanying documentation to UC DATA.

- In order to ensure confidentiality of the data, do not attempt to identify individuals from the dataset or to report results of analysis in such a way as to make the identity of individuals known.
- Do not duplicate the dataset in any form. In order to maintain the integrity of the dataset, all files in this release need to come from UC DATA. Refer interested users to UC DATA, and we will arrange for access to or copies of the dataset.

Foreword

This release of the English/Spanish Interview Data is one of a series of public use datasets to be released as part of the California Work Pays Demonstration Project (CWPDP). This release will allow researchers interested in welfare data, and the CWPDP in particular, to conduct their own analysis of welfare use in California. The variables in this release of the Survey were selected by UC DATA staff, with input from the California Department of Social Services Research Branch (CDSS-RB) and selected members of the Research Advisory Committee (RAC).

Introduction

Overview of the California Work Pays Demonstration Project

In December 1992 the State of California initiated the California Work Pays Demonstration Project (CWDP) to assess the effects of recent changes in AFDC provisions. The data files described here represent a collaborative effort of the California Department of Social Services Research Branch (CDSS-RB), the University of California Data Archive & Technical Assistance (UC DATA) and the Survey Research Center at the University of California, Berkeley. The goal of the project is to document the dynamics of family poverty and welfare use in California. The CWDP is collecting and integrating data on the individual, household, welfare and employment characteristics of AFDC recipients and households, during and after their participation in the welfare system, from four separate sources:

- State administrative records for AFDC, Medi-Cal, Unemployment Insurance, other state and federal assistance programs, and employment tax files.
- County administrative records for AFDC and Food Stamps programs.
- Non-automated client records and paper files at county welfare offices.
- Telephone interviews with AFDC recipients.

By combining these various datasets, it will be possible for researchers with an interest in welfare, poverty, employment and family research to obtain unusually detailed information about the characteristics and economic behaviors of low-income families and children in California. Researchers will be able to examine family outcomes, such as income and family stability, and their relation to household characteristics and involvement in state and federal assistance programs. Transfer payment and earnings data will be available for researchers interested in cost comparison and cost benefit analyses of social programs.

Overview of the CWDP Surveys, English/Spanish and Foreign Language Interview Data

The survey program, which is being conducted by the Survey Research Center at UC Berkeley, employs a prospective longitudinal research design. Two waves of in-depth telephone interviews with a 15% subsample of the 15,000 original research cases, or approximately 2,250 female heads of assistance units who speak English or Spanish, have been conducted. Slightly over 2% of these interviews were conducted with male respondents when there was no female caregiver present in the household. In addition, two waves of a parallel foreign language survey of 1,350 people who speak Armenian, Cambodian, Laotian, or Vietnamese have been finished. Less than 1% of the Foreign Language interviews were conducted with male respondents because of the lack of a female caregiver in the household. These four languages were chosen because out of the 15,000 original research cases, each of these language groups constituted one percent or more of the research county caseloads. Together, these languages are spoken by 12% of California's AFDC population.

These surveys collect background information and outcome information and include questions about education, AFDC history, work history, housing quality and stability, economic hardship, hunger, respondent and child's health and disabilities, labor market activities of the partner/spouse, income, child support, child care knowledge and use of child care, and knowledge of work incentives associated with the California welfare rule changes. The English/Spanish and Foreign Language surveys ask basically the same questions, but the Foreign Language survey includes some additional items about refugee status, ESL classes and refugee camp experiences. While the rate of interview refusal is extraordinarily low, the greatest problem with conducting the interviews is locating the respondents.

Summary Description of Dataset

English/Spanish Interviews Wave 1

Observations	2,214 completed cases
Source	Computer Assisted Telephone Interviewing (CATI) conducted by the Survey Research Center, University of California, Berkeley
Data Collection Period	October 20, 1993 - September 18, 1994
Case Sampling Period	October 1992
Dataset Description	The Survey File contains information on a sample of AFDC recipients in the four research counties who speak English or Spanish.. Information collected includes case identifying information, respondent information, household information, respondent's AFDC history, respondent's housing situation, quality of life, respondent's health, respondent's children's health history, respondent's education and job history, spouse's education and job history, respondent's and spouse's income, child support, child care and knowledge of AFDC rules.

Notes on Using the Data

Linking Files

Researchers may wish to do analyses combining, or linking, data from this file with data from the County Welfare Administrative Data (CWAD). To do this, it is necessary to uniquely identify each record in the files. Linking data files is a complex process. Careful thought must be given to the procedure used. Finding a match on the identifier means that you have successfully located information for the unique record in each of the files

Cases in the Survey file are uniquely identified by the Case Identification Number (CASEID).

Cases in the CWAD files are uniquely identified by the CWAD Case Identification Number (CIDG).

To link the Survey file with the CWAD files, you must use the CWAD Overview Data file as a crosswalk.

The Case Identification Number (CASEID) in the Survey file is identical to the Survey Identification Number (SIDG) found in the CWAD Overview Data File.

The CWAD Overview Data File links the Survey Identification Number (SIDG) with the CWAD Case Identification Number (CIDG).

For additional information on linking, see the section Linking Files in the California Work Pays Demonstration Project: County Welfare Administrative Data, Public Use Version 4.

Introduction Appendix A: Legislative Changes

Legislative Changes

State legislation under the Assistance Payments Demonstration Project mandated specific statewide reforms in California's welfare program. The legislation provided authority to the Department of Social Services to make programmatic changes in AFDC. The following changes became effective December 1, 1992:

- (1) the Maximum Aid Payment (MAP) was reduced by a total of 5.8 percent; and
- (2) the 100-hour work rule was waived for unemployed parent cases. (This rule was not in effect for family group (FG) cases.) This means that beginning December 1992, earners in both family group (FG) and unemployed parent (U) cases may work more than 100 hours in any given month and not automatically be disqualified for aid.

Additional changes were made in California's welfare laws in July of 1993 when Senate Bill 35 passed. The California Work Pays Demonstration Project continued the APDP changes and included additional work incentives:

- (3) rescinding the four-month limitation on the $30 and 1/3 income disregard, meaning that beginning July 1993, aid recipients may work and not have their grants reduced dollar-for-dollar; rather, recipients can keep the first $30 and one third of their income before aid reductions ensue;
- (4) increasing the need standard – the Minimum Basic Standard of Adequate Care (MBSAC) to allow income produced from employment;
- (5) increasing the Earned Income Tax Credit; and,
- (6) further reducing the Maximum Aid Payment, to a total of 8.3% (including the cuts made previously).

Other Senate Bill 35 changes provided:

- (7) a child care supplement for AFDC recipients who work, applicable to all recipients;
- (8) expansion of the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) program by 71 percent to allow 36.6 percent more AFDC recipients to be served. A "one time through" provision was also added to the program, and a one-time only exemption for having a child under the age of three years;
- (9) changes in resource limits: The equity value limit for an automobile increased from $1,500 to $4,500; allowable resources increased from $1,000 to $2,000; and savings accounts for specialized purposes became possible: up to $5,000 for children's college education, for a down payment on a home, or for starting a business (resource limit changes do not apply at eligibility determination, for which the old rules still apply);
- (10) an alternative assistance feature, whereby people who qualify for welfare do not have to receive a grant if they do not want one, but rather can receive only the Medi-Cal insurance coverage, child care assistance, and other help instead;
- (11) a program for pregnant and parenting teens called Cal-Learn, featuring incentives to return to or stay in school, disincentives to bad grades or dropping out and the provision of child care, transportation, and ancillary assistance necessary to support schooling; and case management services through a specialized agency known as the Adolescent Family Life Program (AFLP).

Introduction Appendix B: Research Design

Research Design

In order to enact changes to welfare, the State of California was required in 1992 to obtain a federal waiver because federal regulations prohibit reducing AFDC payments by the amount the state proposed. One condition on which the federal government signed the waiver was that after a two-year grace period, the State would reimburse the federal government for excess costs if the changes were not cost neutral to the federal government. Another condition was that the State would conduct research on the effects of changes in welfare provisions on recipients with respect to the achievement of self-sufficiency. In order to determine whether the welfare rule changes have been cost neutral to the federal government and to conduct research, the state established the California Assistance Payments Demonstration Project, later renamed the California Work Pays Demonstration Project (CWPDP).

UC DATA was asked to design and implement a series of different data collection strategies to provide information for an evaluation study with an experimental research design. Accordingly, 15,000 cases on AFDC in four counties (Alameda, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and San Joaquin) were randomly selected for the study. These initially selected cases are referred to as the "original" sample. Ten-thousand cases were placed in an experimental group which, like the rest of the welfare population, was subject to the rule changes, and five-thousand cases were kept on the rules that were fixed as of September of 1992. For these control cases, it was as if the welfare law never changed. U – or unemployed parent – cases (which are two-parent families) constitute only 5-7% of the welfare caseload, but they have been oversampled for the CWPDP experiment because as a group they are expected to be more responsive to the work incentive features of the program. One-third of the CWPDP sample was drawn with this aid type.

Though an initial sample of 15,000 cases was drawn, many recipients leave welfare as time goes by. Because of this case turnover, the original sample resembles the actual welfare population less and less over time. Therefore, in addition to the base (original) sample, each month UC DATA adds new sets of freshly-drawn cases from CDSS. These subsequently selected cases are referred to as the "additional" samples.

The Research Counties

The research counties were selected based on geography and population type, with one urban county from the northern and southern parts of the state and one rural county from the northern and southern parts of the state.

The four counties chosen as research counties for the CWPDP have distinct characteristics relating to their geography, populations, welfare caseloads, and welfare departments. Los Angeles and Alameda Counties contain major urban centers of California, and San Joaquin and San Bernardino Counties are their neighboring rural areas. San Joaquin represents the agricultural region known as the Central Valley, while San Bernardino is part of Southern California's vast desert region and is the largest of the four counties in geographic size.

Los Angeles County has the largest population of any California county with nearly nine million residents in 1990. San Bernardino and Alameda Counties, with approximately 1.2 to 1.5 million residents each, contain less than one-sixth of the population of Los Angeles. San Joaquin with approximately 500,000 residents contains less than one-eighteenth of Los Angeles' population.

Los Angeles County has the highest welfare caseload, with more than 285,000 cases in 1992; the other three counties have caseloads in the 30,000 - 60,000 range with San Joaquin's caseload being the smallest. However, San Joaquin County had the highest percentage of its population on AFDC of all four counties in 1990. In addition, San Joaquin County is unique because it has a high percentage of unemployed parent cases (20%). The other three county caseloads contain 10 to 15 percent unemployed parent cases.

Introduction Appendix C: Sample Design

In December 1992 the State of California initiated the California Work Pays Demonstration Project (CWDP) to assess the effects of recent changes in AFDC provisions. This field experiment with control and experimental groups was required under the Federal waiver that permitted the changes in AFDC program rules. The waiver specified that the original sample should consist of approximately 10,000 experimental and 5,000 control cases. In addition, new cases were to be selected for study as an attempt to maintain a representative sample of the AFDC population across time and obtain information about new welfare cases.

Procedures For Original Sample Selection

Selection of the CWDP sample was completed by the California Department of Social Services. The pool of cases eligible for sampling included all Family Group (FG) and Unemployed (U) cases receiving AFDC in each of the four research counties in October 1992, except mixed FG/U cases¹, as recorded in the Medi-Cal Eligibility Data System (MEDS) files². The original December 1992 sample of approximately 15,000 cases was to consist of approximately 4,000 FG and 2,000 U cases from Los Angeles County, and 2,000 FG and 1,000 U cases for each of the remaining three counties. To select the original sample, CDSS first raised the county targets by approximately 10 percent because of the likelihood that some cases would be lost between the sampling month, October, and the month the experiment began, December. CDSS then calculated the appropriate sampling intervals to exhaust the actual October 1992 county caseloads in selecting the sample. These intervals were rounded down to generate a higher number of cases than the sample targets. The first case was selected by a random number generator and the sampling intervals exhausted the actual October 1992 county caseloads. Sampled cases were then randomly assigned to control or experimental status (1 control case for every 2 experimental cases). Because the caseloads were sorted by county case number, the use of the interval sample served to stratify the original sample by age (time on assistance) of case since numbers are assigned by counties sequentially as cases come on the welfare rolls. Therefore, the distribution of sampled cases by length of time on aid should match that of the county caseloads in October 1992. The following table, Table 1, shows that the original observed sample was actually 16.2% lower than the expected sample using the rounded interval, and 12.8% lower than the sample target using the non-rounded intervals.

Table 1: Original Sample Frames, Targets, Intervals, and Observed Sample Sizes

Total			16,524			17,198	14,404	16.2

Procedures For Additional Samples Selection

Additional sample cases were selected to provide information about households new to assistance in the research counties each month. The additional cases were sampled on a monthly basis from cases "new" to the ¹ FG cases are those cases in which at least one person has an aid code of 30; U cases have at least one recipient with an aid code of 35. Mixed FG/U cases have at least one recipient with a code of 30 and one with a code of 35. Mixed cases are ineligible to be sampled.

² Since these files indicate history and not current status, some cases sampled in October 1992 were found not to have been on assistance during December. Such cases were dropped from the sample.

CWPDP welfare system. In addition, new cases were to be selected for study as an attempt to maintain a representative sample of the AFDC population across time and obtain information about new welfare cases. Because the first additional sample was not selected until March 1993, it was necessary to include "new" cases from the period December 1992 through February 1993. For the March 1993 additional sample, cases were considered "new" if they had not received assistance during September, October or November 1992. For cases sampled in the period March 1993 through November 1993, a case was considered "new" if it had not received assistance at any time between the sampling month and September 1992. After November 1993, a case was considered "new", and eligible for inclusion in the additional sample if it had not received assistance at any time during the previous 12 months. CDSS then selected additional sample cases, from these "new" cases, using the same sampling intervals used for the original sample.

INTRODUCTION

The California Work Pays Demonstration Project is a collaboration between the Research Branch of the State Department of Social Services (DSS), University of California Data Archive and Technical Assistance (UC DATA), and the Survey Research Center (SRC) at the University of California, Berkeley. The Project collects and integrates data on the individual, household, welfare and employment characteristics of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) recipient households, during and after their participation in the welfare system. The Project will integrate individual-level data from four separate sources:

- (1) State-level administrative records for AFDC, Medicaid, Unemployment Insurance, and other state and Federal assistance programs;
- (2) County-level administrative records for the AFDC and Food Stamp programs;
- (3) Nonautomated client records maintained at county welfare offices; and,
- (4) Telephone interviews with AFDC recipients.

By combining these various databases and documenting them for public use, it will be possible for researchers to obtain unusually detailed information about the characteristics and economic behaviors of low-income families and children in California. Researchers will also be able to examine other family outcomes, such as income and family stability, and their relation to household characteristics and involvement in state and Federal assistance programs. Transfer payment and earnings data will be available for researchers interested in cost comparison and cost-benefit analyses of AFDC programs.

The first wave of telephone interviews with English- and Spanish-speaking AFDC recipients is documented in this codebook. The interviews with speakers of other languages will be documented separately.

ABOUT THE DATA FILE

ENUMERATION INDEX

There were two lists of persons made during the enumeration of the household residents. The first list was for persons aged 20 and over. The second list was for persons under 20 years of age. The persons on the first list (aged 20 and over) were assigned a number from 1 to 10, based on the order in which they were given to the interviewer. Persons on the second list (under 20 years of age) were similarly assigned a number from 11 to 20.

In this codebook, whenever the term "enumeration index" or "enum index" or "index" is used, it refers to this number that is assigned to each person within a sampled household.

CONVENTIONS USED IN THE DATA FILE

Blanks

Variable locations left blank in the data file generally indicate that those variables are not relevant for a specific respondent, due to skip patterns. "Blank - DNA" appears in the list of code categories for an item when the question was not asked of some respondents. Unused (undefined) record locations are also left blank.

Leading Zeros

If a response code has fewer digits than the defined width of a variable, leading zeros are used. For example, a response code of "7" for a two column variable is written as "07" in the data file.

ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THIS DOCUMENT

 SUMMARY OF R'S AFDC STATUS AND CHILDREN

This section determines respondent's AFDC status by summarizing for whom, in the household, respondent is currently receiving AFDC (variable 'wflb') and for whom respondent received AFDC in the past (variable 'wfgr'). If respondent only receives or received AFDC for someone else's children, then respondent is a caretaker. Otherwise, respondent is a custodial parent.

If the respondent is a custodial parent, the children associated with respondent's AFDC status are the respondent's biological or step-children who are currently living in the household. If the respondent is a caretaker, the children associated with respondent's AFDC status are children for whom the respondent is currently receiving AFDC. If the a caretaker is not currently receiving AFDC for any children living with him/her but he/she has received it in the past, then the children associated with respondent's AFDC status are those for whom the respondent previously received AFDC and still live with the respondent.

rtyp Type of assistance HH

This summary variable indicate whether R was custodial parent or relative caretaker when receiving the AFDC. The words "w/kid" or "w/o kid" were added to the category according to whether the children R receiving AFDC for still live with R at the time of the interview.

REASONS FOR AFDC STATUS

Asked only if R was not identified as caretaker.

why2

R stopped working at a job

If R IS/WAS CARETAKER, (i.e. "rtyp" = 3 or 4), SKIP TO "race".

IF R CURRENTLY ON AFDC AND HAS RECEIVED AFDC CONTINUOUSLY:
Now I'd like you to think back to when you first started getting AFDC -- that is when you were (AGE from "wfcc") years old. Did any of the following things happen to you in the few months before you went on AFDC?

IF R CURRENTLY ON AFDC, BUT HAD NOT RECEIVED CONTINUOUSLY:
Now think back to when you went on AFDC the last time -- that is around (YEARS/MONTHS FROM "wl1c" and "wl1d") ago. Did any of the following things happen to you in the few months before you went on AFDC?

IF R NOT CURRENTLY ON AFDC:
Now think back to when you went on AFDC THE LAST TIME. Did any of the following things happen to you in the few months before you went on AFDC?

How about you stopped working at a job or reduced the number of hours you worked? Did that happen to you in the few months before [you went on AFDC/"you went on AFDC the last time"]?

qual Financial situation compared to a yr ago

We're particularly interested in learning more about how people are doing these days.

When it comes to money and making ends meet, how do you think things are going for you (these days)? Would you say you are better off now than you were a year ago, worse off now, or are things about the same as they were a year ago?

 DESCRIPTION OF THE RANDOMLY SELECTED CHILD

In this series, questions are asked about one randomly selected child. If the respondent is a custodial parent, the child asked about here will be selected from among the respondent's biological or step-children who are living in the household. If the custodial parent has no biological or step-children currently living with him/her, these questions will not be asked. If the respondent is a caretaker, one child will be randomly selected from among those for whom the respondent is currently receiving AFDC. If the caretaker is not currently receiving AFDC for any children living with him/her but he/she has received it in the past, questions will be asked about one of the children (selected at random) for whom the respondent previously received AFDC, as long as that child still lives with the respondent.

 DATES USED IN QUARTERLY JOB SERIES

The first date in the quarterly work question is the first month of the yearly quarter that precedes the interview. Quarters are broken down as follows: January through March, April through June, July through September, and October through December. The date showed in the quarterly work questions "qt1a" through "qt5b" are named as "fdt1", "fdt2", "fdt3", "xdt1" and "xdt2". An additional variable "xmon" is used to indicate the number of months between the last month of the preceding quarter and current interview month. For example, if an interview took place in November 1994, this series began with July 1994, since that marked the beginning of the most recent (completed) quarter. Quarterly work questions continued from the beginning of the preceding quarter up through the month before the interview (i.e. date filled on "qt1a" through "qt4b" are: fdt1=9407, fdt2=9408, fdt3=9409 with xmon=1 and xdt1=9410).

CHILD SUPPORT FOR THE RANDOMLY SELECTED CHILD

In this series, questions are asked about child support for one child. If the respondent is a caretaker or a male, these questions will not be asked. If the respondent is a custodial parent, the child asked about will be selected from among those who are biological or step-children of the respondent, and whose father does not also live in the household. (If the father of all the children in a custodial respondent's household lives in the household, this series will not be asked since presumably if the father is in the household, he will not be making child support payments.)

 Weights

wtbasic Basic SRC Weight

The basic weight adjusts for some differences in probabilities of selection at the stage in which the 14,537 experimental and control subjects were sampled by SRC for interviewing. An adjustment for differential non-response is also incorporated. See appendices A and B of the codebook for more details.

wtexpn Population Expansion Weight

The expansion weight incorporates all of the adjustments used in the basic SRC weight; in addition it adjusts for the different DSS sampling fractions in each FG/U group of each county, and it expands up to the caseload of December 1992 AFDC recipients in the four sampled counties. See appendices A and B of the codebook for more details.

APPENDIX A

SAMPLE DESCRIPTION

The sample of AFDC recipients for the survey was selected in various stages, first by the California Department of Social Services (DSS), then by the Survey Research Center (SRC). A summary of the various stages is given here.

1. The population from which the original sample was drawn was composed of all AFDC recipients as of December 1992 in four California counties: Alameda, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and San Joaquin. There were approximately 360,000 AFDC recipients on the rolls in those counties at that time.

2. Of those 360,000 AFDC recipients, approximately 5,000 were selected at random by DSS as a "control" group. The remainder (that is, most AFDC recipients) were designated as the "experimental" group. From this experimental group, approximately 10,000 were selected at random by DSS for potential follow-up by survey, in order to compare them with the control group. A total of 14,537 experimental and control AFDC recipients were selected with sampling fractions that varied by county and by type of AFDC program -- family group (FG), or unemployed (U).

3. Information on the 14,537 experimental and control AFDC recipients was sent to SRC by DSS. SRC then sampled at random from the 14,537 in order to conduct the survey. The sampling fractions used by SRC varied somewhat by county and by FG/U program. There were also differences by language. The 12,021 AFDC recipients who spoke English or Spanish were sampled at one rate; the 1,700 recipients whose primary language was coded as Cambodian, Loatian, Vietnamese, or Armenian were all taken into the sample for interviewing; the 746 speakers of other languages were excluded.

4. Interviews were completed with 2,214 English and Spanish speakers, and with 1,346 speakers of the other four languages. Data from those interviews with English and Spanish speakers are included in this codebook.

APPENDIX B

DESCRIPTION OF WEIGHTING PROCEDURES

Weights were created for each case to compensate for differences in probabilities of selection and to expand the sample to match certain population distributions. Three different weights were generated.

1. Basic SRC Weight (wtbasic)

The basic weight adjusts for some differences in probabilities of selection at the stage in which the 14,537 experimental and control subjects were sampled by SRC for interviewing. An adjustment for differential rates of non-response across county, program (FG or U), and language (English or Spanish) is also incorporated into the basic weight. The weighted number of cases (12,021) equals the DSS sample of the English and Spanish speaking AFDC recipients. (The data file described in this codebook includes 2,214 English and Spanish speaking respondents.)

2. Population Expansion Weight (wtexpn)

The expansion weight incorporates all of the adjustments used in the basic SRC weight; in addition it adjusts for the different DSS sampling fractions in each FG/U group of each county, and it expands up to the caseload of December 1992 AFDC recipients in the four sampled counties. Note that this weight also maintains the experimental and control cases in the proportion of 2 to 1. The weighted number of cases (319,215) reflects the December 1992 caseload of English and Spanish speaking AFDC recipients.

3. Population Simulation Weight (wtsim)

One purpose of the survey was to provide estimates of the different costs that would be incurred if all AFDC recipients were enrolled in the control program instead of the experimental program. This weight expands BOTH the experimental and the control groups of survey respondents up to the full population of AFDC recipients in the four counties. The weighted total of subjects is therefore DOUBLE the total AFDC population in those four counties. Therefore, this weight should only be used when explicit comparisons are being made between the experimental and control groups.

APPENDIX E

TEXT FOR 'OTHER SPECIFY' AND OPEN-ENDED RESPONSE CATEGORIES

The following text corresponds to variables which include an "other specify" or open-ended response category. The variables are listed in instrument order. Each response is identified by the five-digit SRC caseid and the variable name. Interviewer prompts or comments are shown in parentheses. Although some minimal editing of the verbatim text was done, no attempt has been made to produce a clean version with correct spelling and punctuation.

Common abbreviations used by interviewers to record verbatim text are as follows:

R	Respondent
q	Question
rq	Repeated the question
rc	Repeated response category
mv	More verbatim
b/c	because
ca	Change the answer
dk	Don't know
